

The English Quarter

The English Quarter were formed in 2010 and we have been playing together regularly ever since. We pride ourselves on a vibrant stage-show and delivering a good-time party set, which blends all the well-known covers with some interesting and undiscovered gems.

The band's reputation has been built on playing the right songs in the right way that means meeting your expectations and ensuring your guests enjoyment. Getting this balance right is crucial to the success of your party. We are well versed in the art of "Party Building" both on and off the stage. So rest assured you are in good hands.

Preparing for your party
